Ten Thousand Villages Hosts 5th Annual Multicultural Fun Day for Kids, Featuring Games, Crafts and Music

RALEIGH, N.C., June 1, 2006 – Ten Thousand Villages of Raleigh, a non-profit, fair trade retail store in Cameron Village, will host the 5th Annual Multicultural Day for Kids from 12:00 to 5:00 p.m., Saturday, June 10, 2006.

Most appropriate for children ages 5 to 10, the event provides them the opportunity to learn about and appreciate other cultures so they can better understand the world in which they live.

The educational and fun event features international games, crafts, temporary tattoos and refreshments. Games and crafts will be available throughout the event with featured activities at scheduled times:

- 1:00 p.m. Drum circle for children using instruments from the Ten Thousand Villages store (no experience necessary)
- 2:00 p.m. Participatory international dance
- 3:00 p.m. Story time

Children enjoy crafts at the 2005 event.

About Ten Thousand Villages of Raleigh

Ten Thousand Villages of Raleigh is a non-profit, fair trade retail store located in the Cameron Village Shopping Center. Opened in 1995, the store is part of a network of nearly 100 fair trade stores across North America. The Raleigh store's principal wholesaler, Ten Thousand Villages-U.S., is the oldest and largest fair trade home décor and gift retailer in the United States, and a founding member of the International Federation of Alternative Trade \(IFAT\) and member of the Fair Trade Federation \(FTF\), both of which aim to improve the livelihood of disadvantaged people in developing countries and to change unfair structures of international trade. Ten Thousand Villages of Raleigh purchases products only from carefully chosen organizations that are members of the IFAT and FTF.

In 2005, Ten Thousand Villages-US received Co-op America's People's Choice Award for Green Business of the Year.

The award recognizes Ten Thousand Villages as a leader among businesses across the country committed to social and environmental responsibility.

About Fair Trade

Fair Trade contributes to the alleviation of poverty in developing regions of the world by establishing a system of trade that allows marginalized producers to gain access to developed markets. This system of trade builds on artisans'/producers' skills, enabling communities to play an active part in their own development and at the same time satisfying consumer demand in developed markets.
